Our Father who art in heaven; hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Jean Lucille Nielsen

Jean Lucille Nielsen lost her short battle with cancer on April 1, 2022, one day before turning 72 years old. She spent her final days surrounded by her five daughters and grandchildren.

Jean was born on April 2, 1950 and raised in a family of seven in the same 1600 square foot house throughout her childhood in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. She was a proud stay-at-home mom during the early years of raising her daughters and then transitioned into working at the United States Postal Service to bring additional income to the family. She was bright with a strong work ethic which allowed her to work her way up the ranks to a management position for the Gilbert Post Office where she retired after 20 years of employment. She loved to sew and, in addition to making clothes and quilts for her family, she quilted and donated blankets to children needing emergency shelter. Jean relished her role as grandma; there was nothing she liked better than spending time spoiling her grandkids with sugar and attention... and then sending them back home to their parents. Jean was incredibly active in her Christian faith and church community throughout her life although when it came to music, she preferred the Beatles to hymns. Always witty and humorous, she became more willing to share her sense of humor to family, friends, and strangers alike as she got older.

Jean is predeceased by her beloved husband of 24 years, Donald Nielsen, who passed away on December 11, 2016. Jean is survived by her children and step-children, Jill (and Devin) Alexander of Gilbert, Arizona; Cheri (and Jess) Beckenhauer of Peoria, Arizona; Dawn Dickinson of Salt Lake City, Utah; Kellie (and J.) von Borstel of Gilbert, Arizona; Liz Nielsen (and Mike Tenore) of Gilbert, Arizona, and Kurt (and Beth) Nielsen of Parker, Colorado; twelve grandchildren, Kyle and Joey McLemore, Jayson von Borstel, Jack and Claire Nielsen, Ethan and Ella Beckenhauer, Owen, Lila, and Jeanie Fleishman, Conor and Emma Alexander; one great granddaughter, Rory von Borstel; brothers, Tom, Bob, and Blair Stocker, sister, Grace Casey, and yappy dog D.J.
